Stephen S. Salmieri, D.O.
FACOG, FACS

To my dear patient,

I am reaching out to you to let you know that as of January 2, 2018, I will be leaving the practice and will no longer be seeing patients at Georgia Gynecologic Oncology (GGO). As your physician, I have had the honor of knowing you and your willingness to entrust me with your care has been one of the great privileges of my life.

To help you with this transition and maintain the continuity of your care, our office coordinator, Nan Cordier, will maintain contact with your referring physician and assist in transferring your care to another provider as needed.

My highly regarded partner, Dr. Stephen Salmieri, along with the very skilled staff at GGO, are immediately available in the Lawrenceville and Cumming offices to continue to provide you with the same excellent clinical care to which you are accustomed. To make an appointment with Dr. Salmieri, please call 678-442-3121.

Additionally, should you wish to choose a different provider, the GGO staff would be happy to refer you to other qualified gynecologic oncologists that practice throughout the Atlanta Metro area. Please contact the office at 404-303-3750 so that they may help you choose a provider that will best fit your clinical and geographical needs.

If you choose a health care provider outside of GGO, please complete an authorization to release your medical records so that we can forward a copy of your records to your new physician, as your records cannot be released without your written authorization. The Medical Records Release Form can be found on our website at www.ggo-atl.com/forms.html. Please fax your completed form to 404-252-4755.

It has been my pleasure and honor to have served as your physician and I will carry you in my heart.

Gratefully yours,
